

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are undernourished has increased from 600 million to 800 million (FAO 1996). The number of people who are malnourished has increased from 1.2 billion to 1.5 billion (FAO 1996).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the nutritional status of the world's population. The World Bank (1992) has estimated that the cost of malnutrition to the world economy is $100 billion per year. ON, ON OLD CLINTON

On, On old Clinton
Break right through that line
We've got them going,
Give it to them, Fight!

C. H. S. Fight! Keep on fighting,
We don't know defeat,
On, On old Clinton, On to Victory.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1924, gratefully dedicate this volume of The Old Gold and Black to our parents, whose sacrifice and unselfish support have made our education possible.

FOREWORD

In stylish cover, neatly dressed
In modest word and phrase expressed
In narrow limits all compressed,
You'll find herein the Seniors best.
This little book and artistry
Relates the records of our state
From primal chaos, down to date.
You'll find upon our Spotless page
The record of a Golden Age,
Each noted act, each worthy fact.
Oh critic of discerning eye,
Pity pass our imperfections by;
And for the will accept the deed,
And of your praise bestow full meed.

CLINTON SCHOOL BOARD

The members of the Clinton School Board are thoughtful, cooperative workers for the betterment of the Clinton School system. They advance better educational ideas and support all phases of athletics.

MR. McREYNOLDS

Mr. "Mac" is the one who always lends a helping hand. His chief aim is to make the Clinton School System the best one in the State, and we're sure he's going to succeed.

FAGULTY

C. H. S.

THE PRINCIPALS

The Principals R. O. Minnick and Earl Boyd are doing much to advance the standards of education in the Clinton High Schools.

They are greatly interested in athletics and they are using all their efforts to make our schools rank with the best.

REVELATIONS

"O wad some pow'r the giftie gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."

George Van Hoosier—"Punk." Nicknames are misleading. George is a crackerjack on the football field but rather backward around ladies. You should worry, Punk, Daniel Webster wasn't always a great orator.

Evelyn Stone—"Still water runs deep," so the saying goes and Evelyn is our quiet little miss from across the river. She's been with us all four years though she never lets us know she's on the place.

Dorothy Balch—Rowdy little Dotty. She's there when mischief's brewing. Fact is she generally starts the fire under Mischief's kettle. We all say, "Dot's a peach."

Naomi Annakin—Our flashy little basketeer. At any position she's right there with the goods. Never known to be flustrated even when called upon in Sociology.

Carl Dicks—Another football man. Cappy is a dandy good sport and isn't even the least bit self conceited. Miraculous, says we.

Mary Bakas—This lassie also waited until her senior year to have her hair bobbed. But better late than never n'est ce pas Marie?

Leon Bumgartner—"Bum" hails from near Universal, better known as Bunsen. He's our circulation manager and looks real businessified when he gets his "specs" all "sot" on his nose.

Eula Reid—Another Senicr lassie from across the "big creek." Eula pretends she doesn't know much, but—she's a regular History shark.

Fred Blower—Behold our Senior president! Fritz is a "regular hard-nosed politician" when it comes to making speeches, (providing he doesn't forget.)

Margaret E. Davis—"Mike," the ingenious fair one, who strolls all four years through with "A's" except when she changes the monotony for an "A-plus." "Mike's" a sure nuff pal and always a "rock of refuge" in any storm.

Hubert Williams—Hubert is generally known by his collection of ladies' rings. We believe that he is the only Senior to boast of a dozen different girls' rings at the same time.

Norman Silverman—"Nor," the poet of the Senior class. At the first of the year "Nor" passed some cards announcing his candidacy for Constable. All success in the coming election, Nor.

Ronald Smith—"Ronny" doesn't say much but we know a Senior girl who thinks he may occupy the White House. We sincerely hope this doesn't make anyone blush except Ronald.

CLASS OF 1924

DARK AGE

In September of the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty, it came to pass that a multitude of barbarians, known as Freshies, entered the portals of Clinton High School. Finding it necessary to organize, the following were selected to lead us through the quagms of this Age: Harold Harrison, chief, with Margaret Davis as his assistant; Thelma La Plante, recorder and keeper of tithes, and Mrs. Swayne, counselor. Virginia Fillinger was our representative around the council fire.

The Freshman tribe was the first to stage a class chapel for the amusement of our fellow students and the faculty.

RENAISSANCE

At the beginning of this new era in our history we decided on the following officials: Margaret Davis, Virginia Fillinger, Harold Harrison and Miss Kendall. Once again we strove to entertain our fellow sojourners by presenting a minstrel. Realizing that our sophistication might eventually cause us injury the Sophomores planned a Kid Party, at which we all acted as dignified four-year-olds.

Our renowned class took part in numerous scholastic activities, including basketball, football and the musical comedy, "Miss Cherry Blossom."

REFORMATION

As we took our places in the ranks of C. H. S. for a third time a marked improvement was noted. The tribe had lost all semblances of barbarism and had in a few short years been able to assume the traits of civilization. To hold the reins of the Junior class were chosen: Laura Bosonetto, Lorraine Walker, Madeline Wright, and Miss Schoolfield (now Mrs. Carithers). Virginia Fillingim again represented us on the Board of Control. Our class had the distinction of winning the inter-class athletic championship.

In the merry month of May, following in the footsteps of our predecessors, the Juniors entertained the graduating class with a banquet at the Methodist church. Recitations and musical numbers constituted the program.

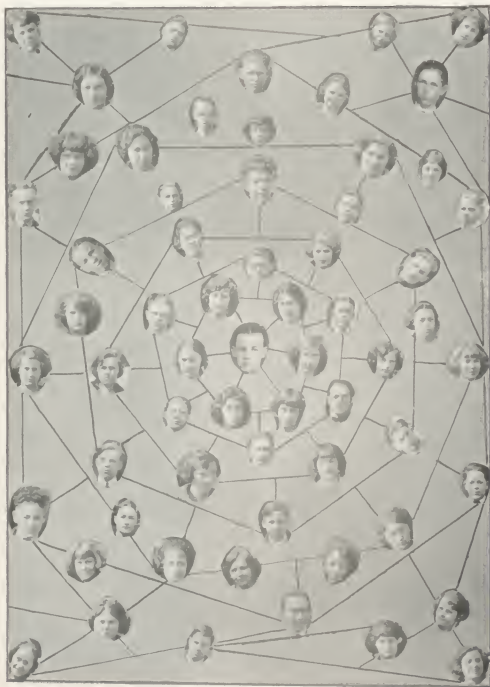

MODERN AGE

As we entered the realm of C. H. S. in the fall of 1923, it was with regret that we realized it was our last year in this temple of education. Our guides for our first trip were: Fred Blower, Harry Johanson, Harold Harrison and Mrs. McWethy.

In order to do their bit in giving financial aid to the athletic equipment fund the Sophomores and Seniors together presented the play "Miss Somebody Else" at the Capitol theater, January 16.

At the time of the writing of this, plans had not yet been made for a class play, but it is very probable that one will be given.

Wakefield Gerrish—Wakey makes a specialty of driving Buicks. It doesn't seem to make any difference what color they are. A little bird tells us that he prefers an I. U. student at his side.

Beryl Pavey—Beryl just can't understand why she gets called upon so much in a certain class. Such is life, Beryl, and somebody's bound to take the joy outta it.

Beulah Griffen—She's saved our records and the teachers tempers many a day for Beulah always has her lessons. The midnight oil that girl must burn!! Better be careful, Beulah, cause too much work isn't good for you.

Harold Harrison—Business man of the Senior class. Last year he was a member of the H. H. H. firm (Harrison, Hostetler & Harrison). This year he has become a window decorator of great renown. 'Ray, Harold.

Murl Youmans—This Senior girl is often mistaken for a movie star. Her golden hair and blue eyes in combination with her adorable dimples would melt a statue's heart.

Chris Pesavento—Captain of the football team and a wonderful athlete is this Senior lad who has been blind to all the admiring glances of the weaker sex. Keep it up, Chris, and you'll never be paying alimony.

Martha Braner—This skillful manipulator of a Buick also hails from Parke county. Although you wouldn't think it, for she never gets caught, Martha is frequently in mischief. And we all adore her.

Beulah Patterson—"Pat" is another basketeer who can be relied on for any fun. Her great delight is to throw paper wads and sing in the first period assembly.

Toivo Lahti—Ting-a-ling-Toy can say "Well, I don't know" and grin and get by. Toy is a bear on either a football field or a basketball floor and maybe that has something to do with it.

Margaret Evans—Margaret of the Curly Hair, is a Southern belle. No kidding. She lives clear down on South Eighth. If appearances and letter addresses prove true her interests center around I. U.

Richard Ike—Dick became infatuated (was it gradually or suddenly?) with a certain Sophomore girl. You wouldn't think he would succumb for he isn't the least bit flirtatious.

Margaret Patch—This big tall (??) girl has as her motto, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Patchy is never, never dull, so—draw your own conclusions.

Robert Bence—For any athletic dope let us refer you to Bob. He even knows the average number of words the Terre Haute papers use in writing up our games. A jolly, good chap, you know.

Murrah Doidge—This quiet little girl is seldom seen outside the Commercial Room. We highly recommend our Com. girls. Sixty percent marry their employer before the termination of the first year.

Valentine Mitch—No, there's no mistake, Feb. 14th is Mitchy's lucky day. He's sorry it only comes once a year. Too bad 'cause we can't help you Val.

Thomas Lowe—One of our radio bugs. Tom could make a radio set out of a gnat's house-slipper. We doubt if Tom would classify as a sea-nymph.

Dillis Faulds—"D. G." says athletics are his profession and as a side kick he plays basketball and football. He also prefers blondes. We wonder why.

Louise Luce—"Skinny" was never known to be down-hearted. Her jolly happy-go-lucky air is as welcome as she is. "Skinny"—sure cure for blues.

William Murray—Every royal place has its jester. "Bill" is ours. The teachers even grin at him and we say he's lucky.

Agnes Polony—Zees ees ze geerl wat maka you laff. Her quick wit and Italian dialect speedily found a place in all our hearts. Therefore, nuff sed.

Herschel Pollom—Herschel caused quite a lot of excitement among the H. T. D. A. by carrying an abbreviated trunk around with him. He later eased their minds by telling them it went by the name of "Brief Case."

Laura Bosonetto—A living Minerva who is never without her thinking cap and we surely couldn't get along without her. She'll make a dandy silent partner some day. Stand back, men, don't push.

Hugh Holmes—Having gotten practice, being one of our yell leaders, Duke expects to win laurels leading the famous Needmore Yelling Squad. We were constantly being told that the team needs more yelling. Hence the name.

Lemmie Short—The class imitator. After Rev. Brown finished making paper pretties Lemmie could make 'em almost as well. Her application as his assistant is now in.

Stanford Parson—How the ladies rave about "Stan." Rudolph recognizes him as a competent rival and all the "sheiks" are scared when Stan takes the floor.

Helen Hutton—We would all have heart failure if Polly behaved herself. Some Freshie even addressed her as a fellow classman, but shucks, that didn't make Polly mad. Just considered the source, y' know.

Eva Shannon—Eva is right with the bunch. Not extra bad and not extra good. Eva's interests center outside C. H. S., however.

Harry Johnson—"Shorty" never shirks either work or play. To pull weeds or skip school count on Shorty. He also helps us show visiting teams what lusty young voices we possess.

Loraine Walker—"Boots" is our lengthy center and thinks Ford coupes are "kinda nice." She has received many letters from "Bonicilla," "Minerlava" and "Terre Derma Lax" agents asking to use her name in the "testimonial list." They haven't succeeded as yet.

Paul Branham—This bashful baseball fan from our class is as quiet as a mouse until someone steps on the toes of his favorite team. Then watch out.

Lawrence Goodhue—Lawrence has already spoken for postmastership. He hopes, through his own eloquent speeches and his father's influence, he will be able to occupy this desirable position.

Helen Prall—This little blue-eyed lassie from Parke county apparently has quiet ways, but we know you can count on her for most any fun.

Wayne Jewell & Helman Wasserman—You often see girls who "are never one without the other" but rarely find boys so. Here are two who are able to have lots of fun and yet run off with a "Scholarship C."

Mildred MacNair—"Frizzy" sometimes has an awful time saying what she wants to, but you can make sure it's something worth listening to. "Frizzy's" favorite song is "Oh! Harold."

Cynthia Bennett—Who said red-haired girls had fiery tempers? Our class boasts of an exception to that rule. Cynthia's little brother says her hair isn't red, it's mahogany.

Albert Johnson—Albert plays football, too, and, although he wears no fair lady's token, he has someone deeply concerned in his welfare. Ask Mr. Minnick.

Virginia Fillinger—What would we do without "Vee"? She's about the only living example of "beauty and brains." She is another one who doesn't have to be coaxed into mischief.

Harold Hayworth—Talker of the Senior class. Never known to agree with anyone but we all wish we had his ability to use our gray matter.

Madeline Wright and Frances Kessler—"Bob" and "Bus" were never known to be apart. They've gone all four years of High School with never a squabble. We hear they intend to apply for a special marriage license to be sure of each other in their old age.

Charles Stone—This farmer boy is positively immune to feminine wiles. He won't even smile when he gets an ardent comp. on his hair. Isn't he mean, girls?

Irene Shew—Our country lass who thinks Dana is a real nice town. That's all right, Irene, we all have our weaknesses.

Louis Divan—Louie's chief diversion is argumentation. He could argue a miser out of his coat on a midwinter day. Congratulations, Louie, we couldn't all do it.

Margaret Jones—About the only real dignified member we can boast of. Margaret spends her spare time tickling the ivories and vows she will usurp Paderewski's place.

Millard James—The boy with the real straight hair. May we quote what has already been said of him that "he just loves the name of Doyne. It's so quaint and old-fashioned."

Freda Farrington—Freda's our blue-eyed lassie from out of town. She had, in previous years, a lease on the third story landing, but after the teachers got to "hangin' around in the halls" she said "you couldn't have no fun."

Margaruite Vietti—Margaruite gets to swim at Happyland free, no charges, gratis, fer nothin'. Gee! Ain't she lucky. Landsakes! How we envy her.

Jessie Clarkson—A few winters ago this blonde maid formed an affection for a certain "Skinny" person. We hear he has held her heart (and hand whenever he could) ever since.

Thomas Kamm—"Tis Tommy's great desire to be a gardener. He's trying to learn the fundamentals of the game by helping Mr. H. L. Brown plant his customers.

Agnes Marflak—Just what Mr. L. O. Brown does with chalk and what an eloquent speaker can do with words, Agnes does with paints. View her handiwork and you'll get what I'm trying to say.

Frank Mich—This football star who stepped into the spot light's glare this season we also claim. Mr. Mac thinks Michy deserves a special recommendation.

Stillman Jennings—Stillman isn't so still. Just naturally hasn't much to say. He has sort of a "big brother" attitude for all the girls. Isn't it maddening?

Maggie Claretto—Her name is Maggie and not Margaret. Her favorite occupation is making chicken tracks (short-hand) across the paper and pecking on a typewriter. This she learned on her mother's cash register.

William Binole and Stanley Migala—These two quiet lads have skillfully evaded our Shylocks who have endeavored to find out their names, occupation, age, married or single, etc. Therefore we must direct all inquisitive persons to an assembly teacher of these two boys.

Mildred Lester—Milly doesn't like work and doesn't hesitate to say so. She says "Strike and the world strikes with you. Work and you work alone." And isn't it the truth?

Ruth Certain—Ruth is such a tease. She's just bubbling over with fun. "It's my Southern nature," she confides. Anyway we're mighty glad she has it and we have her.

Lily May Lewis—Lily is a firm contender for "Women's Rights." "Women have opinions so why not express them" is her argument. And the whole feminine faction of the class is behind her.

Edward McClintock—Now, Ed, quit teasing the girls. You know they don't like that. And I'm sure Miss Schoolfield (Oh! I beg your pardon) Mrs. Carithers taught you better. Besides ——? —— is so jealous.

Mary Hosa and Margaret Griffen—These two demure little violets are also members of our group. Their part in this great scheme of things we call "life" seems to be to make the path smoother for their fellow classmen. Without their type our class would surely be incomplete.

Opal Williams—Although Opal can't find her ears when asked in French to do so, she has managed to find her way into our hearts. Her interests do not wander outside C. H. S. walls and her favorite expression is, "Now you know what I mean."

Catherine Mitscher—Catherine, although never the leader of an uproarious gang, was never slow about being where Lady Fun was. Her idea of life is, "Have a smile for everyone you meet and they will have a smile for you."

Anna York—Anna never causes the teachers any worry. She has been a loyal supporter of the school and has at all times "played the game."

Signed:

MADELINE E. WRIGHT.

C. H. S. '24.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1924, upon realizing that our weeks in C. H. S. are few and our possessions many, and thinking it fitting and proper that our possessions be distributed in the way we wish, before we go out into the world, do ordain and establish and declare this to be our last will and testament.

TO THE SCHOOL we will the record of all our happy eventful days, which we shall never forget.

TO THE JUNIORS the class of '24 turns over their dignified ways.

HUBERT WILLIAMS turns over his blue-checked sweater to Daniel Bell, providing Dan has it cleaned and pressed occasionally.

MAGGIE CLARETTO wills her position as class photographer to Annabelle Hunter, providing she purchases a camera.

WILLIAM BINOLE bequeaths his ability as a teacher to anyone who intends to make that his life work.

MARGARET EVANS grants her ability to wink (with both eyes) to Louise Bruning, providing she removes her spectacles before attempting it.

MARY BAKAS wills her scholastic ability to Evelyn Brewer.

EVELYN STONE wills her quiet ways to Alice Stevely.

NORMAN SILVERMAN grants his ability as a poet to Jerry Nichols, who has already some talent in that line.

RONALD SMITH wills his knowledge of Ford sedans (two-door) to Weber Overpeck.

LORAIN WALKER bequeaths the "Old Gold & Black" Calendar notebook to Whaneta Beveridge, providing said notebook doesn't disappear beforehand.

LAWRENCE GOODHUE grants to Warren Pierce all his extensive (?) knowledge of History.

Done at Clinton High School this 2nd day of May, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Four.

WITNESSETH, this instrument was signed, acknowledged and declared on oath by the said class of 1924 to be the last will and testament in our presence and was subscribed by us:

BOBBY BULLOCK,
 BILLY BULLOCK,
 MAX BULLOCK.

NEW CITY JUDGE.

Charles Stone has been appointed City Judge to fill in the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Agnes Polony, judge. Miss Polony resigned to take a position in the state legislature.

The new judge is very highly respected about the city and will be just in every case.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

Hugh Holmes, now sole owner of Morgan's Cash Emporium, began his career as window washer and general flunkey.

NEW SECTION TO GAB.

Starting today a Poets' Corner is to be added to the Gab. This department will be in charge of Murrah Dodge and Beulah Patterson, celebrated poetry critics. Each day a diamond studded, celluloid match-box will be given for the best poem submitted. Today's prize was won by Norman Silverman, Indiana's greatest poet. The poem follows:

Welcome spring!
Oh sweet springtime!
The dearest time
One could wish,
When the earth with music
Does chime;
And on the mirth over all,
In and out the city wall,
Does come the melodious call,
Horseradish!
—By Norman Silverman.

FINED FOR FIGHTING.

Paul Branham and William Binole were each fined $1 and costs, for fighting in city court this morning.

It was said the two got into an argument over baseball and a fight resulted.

NEW FACULTY MEMBER.

Miss Opal Williams has been added to the teaching staff at C. H. S. Miss Williams will teach Philosophy and Political Science.

The new member is a graduate of C. H. S., class of '24, and of Columbia U. and U. of Berlin. She has taught in the High Schools of New York for 6 years.

THEATERS TODAY.

CAPITOL—"Onions and Garlic" is the picture at the Capitol today, starring Virginia Fillinger.

The story is of a beautiful young society girl who is ostracized from society on account of her love for onions and garlic. She meets and falls in love with an umbrella-mender. Their efforts to get back into society form an amusing plot. The umbrella-mender is portrayed by Albert Johnson.

The gowns were designed by the celebrated designer, Agnes Marflak.

WABASH—"Graveyard Ben" is the feature at the Wabash today. The picture is replete with thrills. The story deals with a dashing young shiek who is really an old mummy. The mummy is several thousand years old but suddenly comes to life. He has many funny experiences and finally falls in love with a young beauty. The predicament in which they find themselves is very funny. Frank Mich is the mummy. Margaret Griffin is the comical colored mammy and Catherine Mitscher the heroine.

RIVOLI—"The End of a Perfect Day," featuring Louise Luce, is the picture at the Rivoli today. The plot deals with the efforts of a young society belle to decide which of four young suitors she desires to marry.

EDITORIAL.

The problem which Congress is facing now is the one concerning the individual rights of airplane owners.

A few years ago, these vehicles were regarded as curiosities and their importance was not realized. Several old-timers can remember when $15 for a fifteen minutes' airplane ride was a reasonable price.

An amusing incident happened on Main street yesterday, when a farmer drove into town in a Ford touring car. This is the first automobile that has appeared in this city for a long time. Everyone on Main street showed their appreciation of the joke by their hearty laughter, and the farmer departed rather hurriedly.

But to return to our original topic—the individual rights of plane owners must be settled once and for all.

The inhabitants of this city are unable to sleep when joyriders stay out until one and two o'clock in the morning. Some plane owners are so thrifty that they refuse to buy the new mufflers. As a result, practically all the inhabitants of this city are wearing ear-muffs night and day.

Fellow citizens of Clinton! Are we going to suffer these wrongs or are we going to push this new bill, now before Congress? Let's all stand together and let people know that Clinton, the important city in Indiana, is in favor of the passage of that bill.

NEW HEAD FOR INSANE HOSPITAL.

Indianapolis: Miss Muri Youmans has been appointed as head of the Indiana State Hospital for Insane. Miss Youmans formerly resided in Clinton, Ind. She is a graduate of C. H. S. in the class of '24. Her friends wish her much success in her new work.

WANT ADS.

WANTED—Position as housekeeper for wealthy bachelor or widower. Must have matrimonial intentions. Call 597-L and ask for Ruth Certain.

WANTED—Position as coach of High School football team. Good reference and records. Must have high salary or won't work. Chris Pesavento.

LOST—Back fender, left front wheel and tail light of my car, somewhere between Centenary and Jacksonville. If found, please return to Johnson's Auto Hospital. Harry Johnson.

NOTICE!

Miss Laura Bosonetto has been secured to appear at Happyland Swimming Pool on the opening night, June 2, in expert diving and swimming feats. Miss Bosonetto is the world's champion fancy diver and swimmer.

"FRAT" MEETS

At a meeting of "Tappa Kegga Beer" fraternity on Saturday it was announced that Fred Blower, one of the most active members of the club and also state representative of the Clinton district, was laid up in bed with the gout. A collection for his benefit was taken up, amounting to $4.98. A committee has been appointed to make the presentation.

Millard James, foreman of the Lucky Star Ranch in southwestern Texas is in Clinton for a two months' vacation. He plans to spend a month with his parents and then take a trip through the northern states.

Miss Maggie Claretto has opened a candy store at the corner of Third and Mulberry streets. This is Miss Claretto's first attempt to establish a store of her own.

NEW HOME FOR AGED FOUNDED.

Tom Lowe and Evelyn Stone, wealthy Clinton people yesterday launched plans for the building of a home for the aged. Miss Stone and Mr. Lowe are going to finance the home completely.

The contract was let to McClintock and Migala, architects and builders. The work is to start immediately.

The building is to have two stories and a basement. The only charge for entrance is a $10 fee.

GAB EDITOR TAKES A HELPER.

Miss Dorothy Balch, editor of the Daily Gab, and Leon Bumgartner, city editor of the paper, were quietly married yesterday by the Rev. Dilles Faulds, of the Methodist church.

The engagement of the pair has been rumored for several months but has always been denied, but yesterday Rev. Faulds tied the "knot that binds."

SPARK PLUG SOLD.

Barney Google, owner of the aged race horse, Spark Plug, has sold the famous horse to Miss Lorraine Walker and Beulah Griffen, Clinton racing devotees.

The selling price was said to be $300,000 and it makes the ninth famous racer in the Walker-Griffen stable. The ladies plan to race Sparky in the coming trans-continental race this July and then he will be retired.

Two years ago the two Clinton ladies decided to enter the racing game and several racers were bought. Since that time they have advanced rapidly in the racing world. Last year their horses broke the world's record for total winnings. Among the most noted events won last year were the Kentucky Derby, The Talonia Derby, The American Derby, The Belmont Stakes and many others.

On next Saturday their horse X. Y. Z. will be entered in the Kentucky Derby and is the ruling favorite.

Luck to you "Boots" and "Beulah." Let's have more victories this year.

FILM ACTRESS WEDS.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Members of the Hollywood film company were greatly surprised today when it was announced that Miss Margaret Vitti, famous screen vampire, and Boob McNut were married.

Miss Vitti is the leading vampire of the screen and Mr. McNut is the greatest screen comedian of all time. The real name of Mr. McNut is Thomas Kamm.

SAILS FOR EUROPE.

George Van Hoosier, Vice President of the U. Swipelt and I. Sellit Junk Co., sailed from New York last week for Paris. He will be gone about six weeks. Upon sailing, he said the outlook at present for junk dealers is brighter than last year.

ACTRESS RETURNS

Mr and Mrs. Shell Luce were very agreeably surprised yesterday when their daughter, Miss Louise Luce, arrived unexpectedly from Hollywood, Cal.

Miss Luce has been in Hollywood for two years, starring in the movies. She has just finished making the newest hit of the season, "The Woman Always Pays." Miss Luce has the leading part and is ably supported by Wayne Jewell, the screen's latest Valentino.

There has been some rumor in Hollywood that Mr. Jewell and Miss Luce were engaged but this was quite emphatically denied last night by the pretty screen star.

K. O. WILLIAMS TO FIGHT WORLD'S CHAMP

K. O. Hubert Williams, Clinton's premier heavyweight has been matched to fight the world's heavyweight champion at Chicago on June 6.

The articles were signed last night in New York. Williams was represented by his manager, Richard Ike and the champ by his manager, Louis Divan.

The local boy is to receive $100,000 for his end of the fight and the champ will get $300,000. The fight is to be 20 rounds to a decision.

This is the third time that the two have met. Twice before in no-decision bouts, Clinton's pride has decisively outpointed the champion, but owing to the fact that no decision could be rendered the title has remained in the champ's hands.

Williams has won his last 63 consecutive fights by the K. O. route and is determined to make it 64.

"Hube" will leave Tuesday for Gary, where he will pitch his training camp.

TELEPHONE IS NEW INVENTION

Herschel Pollom, Inventor.

The latest addition to science is the telephophone. A phone which is capable of transmitting and receiving one's thoughts across great distance.

Herschel Pollom is the inventor and has worked for two years on his project. Yesterday he achieved success when Harold Hayworth, senator from Indiana and leader of the I Wanta Talk party in Congress, thoughts were transmitted from his home in Washington to Mr. Pollom's home on South 85th street of this city. Mr. Hayworth is a personal friend of the inventor and the transmitter was installed in the senator's home. At 3:15 p. m. yesterday the thoughts came to Mr. Pollom. He wired Hayworth at once to see if he had received them correctly. Yesterday evening about 6 p. m. the telegram came that it was successful.

This will be a great aid to science and the contraption requires very little space and has but very little equipment. The receiver is practically the same as in the radio but the transmitter is much more intricate.

NEW DIVORCE CASE

Universal.—Charging that her husband slept with an ax in the bed and has threatened to kill her numerous times, Mrs. Lawrence Goodhue, formerly Miss Mildred MacNair, filed suit for divorce today in the circuit court.

About an hour later Mr. Goodhue filed a counter suit, charging that his wife failed to keep a home for him and cruelly mistreated him.

The proceedings will be watched with interest by their friends in Universal.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

Miss Lemmie Short entertained a few of her friends with a six o'clock dinner last evening. During the evening it was announced that Miss Short will marry Mr. Robert Bence, owner of a chain of 5c & 10c stores, on July 15.

CLUB MEETS

The monthly meeting of the "Old Maids Chums Club" met at the home of Eula Reid Saturday afternoon. All of the members of the club were present except Lily May Lewis, who is to be married to Toivo Lahti in June. Miss Lewis' resignation was sent in and accepted at the meeting yesterday. After the business questions were settled, delightful refreshments were served.

Those present were: Irene Shew, Mary Bakas, Helen Prall, Martha Braner, Meryl Pavey, Margaret Patch and the hostess.

FARMER INJURED

Wakefield Gerrish, a promising young farmer, of north of town, was painfully injured when the cow which he was milking kicked him up against the barn. Mr. Gerrish suffered several cuts and bruises about the face and body but no bones were broken.

MAYOR IS WED TO RICH HEIRESS

Dan Cupid was in the midst of our city officials and Clinton's own Mayor, Hon. Stillman Jennings was one of his victims. The lucky lady was Miss Naomi Annakin of Chicago. Mrs. Jennings is a wealthy heiress, having made millions in the soap factories of Chicago.

Mr. Jennings has been courting for several years but yesterday, the day the bride was to return to her mansion in Chicago, was the day old Cupid hit his mark.

The decision was made and the two rushed to the home of County Clerk Ronald Smith and persuaded him to go to his office and get them a marriage license. Next came a flying trip to Bono. All the ministers in the city were busy, so the couple drove to Bono where the Rev. Valentine Mitch of the Dirty Dozen church of that city performed the ceremony.

Mr. Jennings accompanied his bride to Chicago and from there they were to leave for a honeymoon trip through the east. They will be gone two months.

"Congrats" Stillman, old timer.

SIAMESE TWINS IN SHEPERD'VIL'

The Siamese Twins, known here as Madeline Wright and Frances Kessler, are to speak in Shepardsville tonight on how and why they are never separated. The pair are touring the large cities of the globe and will be in Needmore tomorrow night and Syndicate Wednesday night.

PRESIDENT OF A. C. O. M. S. HERE

Was Former Local Girl.

Miss Margaret Davis, the president of the Anti-Cruelty to Old Maids Society, is in Clinton, having come here to investigate alleged cruelty to two Clinton spinsters, Misses Irene Shew and Eva Shannon.

Miss Davis stated to a Gab Sheet representative that it was positively shocking how some old maids were being mistreated in the larger cities. She said, "It's terrible, horrible, positively shocking. Sometimes, they are even laughed at when they appear on the streets, and one old maid, Helen Hutton by name, was approached on the street by a policeman and told that monkeys were not allowed on the streets without keepers. It's perfectly preposterous how we spinsters are mistreated."

Miss Davis is a former Clinton girl and graduate of C. H. S. After graduating she took the cause of the Old Maids to heart and has been an ardent worker for their welfare ever since.

The Gab Sheet staff wishes Miss Davis all the luck in the world in securing peace for her sister spinsters.

IND. MISHAP

Lyford

The home of Helman Wasserman, noted shoe manufacturer, near here, was demolished last night by a cyclone and he received several cuts and bruises. However, he is getting along nicely today. It was a very strange occurrence as it was the only house disturbed. It looks as if the Thunder Gods must have had a special grievance against Mr. Wasserman.

Mr. Wasserman intends to rebuild his home as soon as the wreckage is cleared away.

NEW BEAUTY SHOP

A new Beauty Shop has been opened in the Hotel Barber Shop by Miss Mildred Lester and Miss Cynthia Bennett, famous beauty experts.

Both ladies have had several years experience in New York and have spent several years in schools learning the art.

The shop is to be one of the most up-to-date shops in the city and will do all kinds of beauty work at the lowest prices that can possibly be charged.

ATHLETICS

FOOT BALL SQUAD

FOOT BALL SEASON

C. H. S. had its first losing season since 1918. We won three games and lost five and tied two, however, C. H. S. never quit fighting and when it is considered that the Old Gold and Black went through one of the hardest schedules that a Clinton team has ever attempted we cannot call this season a failure.

C. H. S. this year loses eight men by graduation but we hope next year to see a winning team on the gridiron, one that will avenge all former defeats.

FOOT BALL RECORD

COACH BULLOCK.

Coach Max Bullock came to C. H. S. this year with the huge task confronting him of developing an almost all new line. As a result of his efforts Clinton developed into one of the best defensive teams in the Valley. Too much credit for the success of the team cannot be given Mr. Bullock.

In basketball he had several veterans back from last year but they were all small, nevertheless he again made a success with a C. H. S. athletic team.

GAMES

SEPT. 29. C. H. S. 6; ROSE POLY FRESH 6. HERE.

C. H. S. opened its grid season by holding the strong Rose Poly Freshmen team to a 6-6 tie. The day was rather hot for football but our game was considered one of the fastest openers in the Valley. Several former C. H. S. stars were on the Rose team.

OCT. 6 C. H. S. 74; GERSTMEYER 0. HERE.

The team had little trouble running up the score on the Gerstmeier eleven. Coach Bullock sent the entire second team in during the third quarter and it scored one touchdown. Andy Graham was the star of the day.

OCT. 13. C. H. S. 7; MARION 6. THERE.

The team was unable to get going in the first half and Marion outplayed them but the Old Gold and Black came back fighting in the last half and scored the winning points.

OCT. 20. C. H. S. 14; GEORGETOWN 0. THERE.

Georgetown was the next victim of the C. H. S. eleven. The "Suckers' " line proved to be very strong but it could not hold the Clinton backs, who plowed through it for two touchdowns. Our goal was never in danger.

OCT. 27. C. H. S. 0; MARSHALL 12. THERE.

Marshall was the first team to defeat C. H. S. The game was hard-fought and over-confidence played its part, however, it was the hard line plunges of Metz and Smithley that contributed the most to our defeat.

GAMES

NOV. 3. C. H. S. 7; ROBINSON 19. HERE.

For the second time in succession "our boys" tasted defeat; this time at the hands of the undefeated Robinson team. The game was played in a sea of mud. We scored in the first few minutes of play while Robinson also did all their scoring in the first half. We held them in the last half.

NOV. 10. C. H. S. 12; SULLIVAN 14. THERE.

Lack of practice, due to the condition of the suits after the Robinson game, and over-confidence caused the Sullivan defeat. Nevertheless Sullivan showed unexpected strength.

NOV. 17. C. H. S. 0; LINTON 6. HERE.

Although doped to lose by a large score C. H. S. held the strong Linton eleven to a 6-0 score and put up one of the best defensive games of the year. Linton did not score until the final period. The work of Lahti at end and the deadly tackling of Mich featured.

NOV. 24. C. H. S. 0; OAKLAND 0. THERE.

Oakland developed into one of the strongest teams that C. H. S. had opposed, but our line held wonderfully and we held them to a tie. C. H. S. also had a slight advantage in ground gained. Lahti and Mich again featured.

NOV. 29. C. H. S. 0; BRAZIL 12. THERE.

C. H. S. ended its football season by losing a hard-fought game to Brazil. A hard rain had converted the field into one huge mud puddle. The team played a good game but was not quite equal to the Clay County team. Chris and Maggie starred.

"C" SWEATER MEN

James Wallace, Forward, Basketball

"Jimmy" is the third man to win a sweater this year. He has been a letter man on the basketball team for three years. "Jimmy" is one of the fastest men on the team and a wonderful dribbler. He was never known to quit fighting, not even when we were hopelessly beaten. He is a Junior and will be one of the most valuable men on next year's team.

Chris Pesavento, Guard, Football

Chris was All-Valley guard and second All-State guard this year and earned his sweater by playing three seasons at guard on the football squad, earning his "C" each year. Chris was called the best guard in the Valley by Leonard Kincade in the Terre Haute Tribune and he undoubtedly deserved this honor. Injuries in an automobile accident kept Chris out of the game until the season was well under way, but he soon made up for lost time and was one of the main cogs in our team.

Dante Pesavento, Half Back, Football

Dante is another man to earn a sweater, this being the third consecutive year that he has won his "C" in football. He has been a star in every game and will be one of the main men next year. Dante was one of the hardest hitting backs on the team and was sorely missed in the last few games of the season due to injuries in the Linton game.

TOIVO LAHTI, by winning first place in the low hurdles at Cayuga, qualified for a "C" sweater. Toy earned his sweater by making a "C" in both football and basketball and by making the required number of points in track.

U. H. S.

CLINTON HIGH HONOR ATHLETES

Dante Pesavento—Dante was one of our main ground gainers and when it came to running back punts he was a wonder. Dante was hurt in the Linton game and was forced to remain out of the remaining two games. He is a Junior.

Frank Mich—This was Frank's first year out for football and he sure developed into a real player. His deadly tackling featured every game and he was the hardest hitting back on the team. Only lack of weight kept him from being one of the best in the Valley. You bet he is a Senior.

Ralph Bates—"Carbide" was a substitute end and was a fighter from the word go. He's "hot" at pulling in passes and by next year should be a star at end.

Chris Pesavento—Chris was star guard, captain of the football team and his playing dominated every game. When it comes to fight and pep you've got to get up early and work late to beat him. Sure he is a Senior.

Daniel Bell—Danny was a sub guard and always played good football whenever the coach sent him in. He is a hard fighter and will be one of our best men next year.

Harold McKinney—"Mac" was our hard-hitting substitute halfback. He was a hard fighter and believed in working for the good of the team. "Mac" is a Junior.

Carl Dicks—"Cappy" alternated with Chris at guard and did a good job at guarding, too. "Cappy" always fights and used his weight to a good advantage. Another Senior.

"C" MEN

Stanford Parsons—"Stanny" was a football man only, but was sure good at that. He came out late but soon was playing regular at tackle and was a fightin' fool. He is a Senior.

Albert Johnson—"Monk" was a regular demon when it came to playing football and although not very large was one of the main cogs in our defense. He is another Senior.

Louis Zamberletti—"Louie" was a green Freshie but his greenness did not detract from his football ability because he was one of the stars on our line. Every opponent feared him.

Bonsel Murray—"Bonse" was our regular football center and although playing his first year as a regular he developed into one of the best centers in the Valley. Another Senior.

John Magnabosco—"Maggie" was hindered all season by injuries and did not play all the time but he never quit trying and played his best football at Georgetown and Brazil. He is a Sophomore.

Andy Graham—Andy was our fighting halfback. He could always be depended upon to gain ground and give good interference. Andy ran wild in the Gerstmeier game, scoring 37 points. He will be back next year.

"C" MEN

JAMES WALLACE—"Jimmy" was quarterback on the football team and forward on the basketball team and was a star at both positions. He did not get to play the first few games of football, owing to an operation, but when he did get started he went like a house afire. Jim always fights. He is a Junior.

DILES FAULDS—"Deeg" is another Senior athlete. He was end at football and center at basketball. "Deeg" was high point man on the basketball team and was second All-District center.

TOIVO LAHTI—"Toy" was the fighting back guard on the basketball team, one who was feared by every team in the Valley. In football he was known as a fighter and played either end or quarter. "Toy" is one of the Seniors and is sure to be missed next year.

DARREL OVERPECK—Darrel was a new man on both the football and basketball teams but he was a hard fighter at football and had a good eye for the basket in basketball. He'll be back next year.

HAROLD KENDALL—Kendall was another new man. He always played a good game at tackle on the football team and was one of the most popular men on the basketball squad. Another man for next year.

WILLIAM MURRAY—"Bill" is a basketball shark only, but he sure is a good basketball player. "Bill" as second high point man on the B. B. team, piling up 121 points in 22 games. Yes, old noisy "Bill" is a Senior.

RAYMOND EVANS—"Doc" was a letter man in both football and basketball. "Doc" and Wallace alternated at quarter on the football team and he was sub forward on the basketball team. He is another Junior member of our athletic teams.

JOHN WARDROPE—"Long John" was a sub at both football and basketball but whenever he got in a game he fought like a tiger. He should be one of the mainstays next year.

TOP ROW—Wallace; Bullock, Coach; B. Murray, VanHoosier.
 MIDDLE ROW—Nichols, Lahti, Wardrope, Faulds, Evans.
 BOTTOM ROW—Overpeck, W. Murray.
 TOP ROW—Boyd, Coach; Eliot, Smith, Niemi, Wier, Ball, Bizzy, J. Eliot, Price.
 BOTTOM ROW—Mellowine, Waugh, Nauakis, Wright, Wheat.

SENIOR HIGH RECORD

BASKETBALL

C. H. S. had rather an in-and-out season. One night the team would look like champs and next night they wouldn't look quite so good, however, we had a much better season than last year and we won more than half our games.

C. H. S. opened the season on December 7, at Brazil. Brazil had a team of experienced men and our boys fell by a score of 22-37. On the next night we defeated Chrisman and on the 14th we engaged in a thriller with Normal, at Terre Haute. The boys came out ahead, 30-29, in an overtime game.

Another notable victory was the one over Perrysville on December 22. Adams, Perrysville's star forward was completely smothered, while Faulds and Murray played real ball, C. H. S. winning 39-25. On January 5 the team went to Cloverdale to play in the Invitational Tourney. We lost two games, to Emmence, 26-42 and to Jeff (Lafayette) 29-42.

On the night of January 18 we had another hard game, defeating Cayuga 21-18. The next night, the team showed the effects of the hard game the night before, and Sullivan beat us 37-18. February 26 the regionals of the Wabash Valley Tourney were held and in our first game we beat Marshall 38-18. That night we met Garfield, our old enemy, and snowed them under, 30-16. One week later, at Terre Haute, in the finals, Linton, the team that was later to win the title, was our first opponent. Tough luck at the basket was the deciding factor and we lost, 28-9.

Sullivan again defeated us on February 8, 24-14. We defeated Glenn but lost to Perrysville and on February 23 we wound up our regular schedule by winning a glorious victory over Brazil, 26-22, overtime.

In the District Tourney at Terre Haute we won our first game from Gerstmeyer 19-13, but the next morning the Old Gold and Black lost to Wiley, 22-13.

TRACK

No regular track team was to be formed this year but inter-class games were to be held. If any one person was found to be extra good at any one or more events he was to be entered in any of the meets such as the County, District, etc.

At the time this went to press the inter-class games had not yet started, so we are unable to print the results.

ORGANIZATIONS

ORGANIZATIONS

BOARD OF CONTROL

The Board of Control was re-organized this year on the same plan as that of last year, namely, that one representative from each grade of the two high schools, one from each club or organization and two faculty members from each high school may be sent to the Board.

The Senior High School principal and the faculty manager are also eligible. Meetings are held every other Monday after school and special meetings may be called if desired.

It is the duty of the Board to approve bills, provide for equipment, appoint committees and accept names of athletes receiving letters or monograms. Many other important points, as well as minor ones, are presented to the Board. The Board is one of the most important organizations in Clinton High School, and its value is very apparent in the manner with which it deals with school problems.

CLINTON HIGH PRESS

This is the second year during which the "Clinton High Press" has enjoyed publication. It is published every Thursday in The Clintonian, a whole page and often more being devoted to it.

Last semester the Staff members were elected by the students of J. H. S. and C. H. S., but this semester they were chosen by Miss Baughman, according to their efficiency, individuality and general merit.

Each member is assigned individual work and held responsible for it. Several contributions such as short stories and jokes are received from outside sources. Thus the students were made to feel that it was their "Press" as well as the Staff's.

Under the present system and under the able sponsorship of Miss Baughman the "Press" is enjoying wide popularity among outsiders as well as the students of both High Schools.

ORGAIZATIONS

INTER NOS CLUB

INTER NOS CLUB.

Inter Nos has as its object the idea of causing a deeper interest in Latin and the taking up of such phases of Latin as cannot be dealt with in class.

Inter Nos was first organized in C. H. S. in the fall of 1921. The name of Inter Nos was given to it and a constitution was formed on June 19, 1922. Previous to this time it had been known only as Latin Club.

This year it was again organized with Miss Kendall and Mrs. Johnson as sponsors and the following officers elected:

President	Bessie Dugger
Vice President	Juanita Beveridge
Secretary Treasurer	Ruth Reicheson
Sponsors	Miss Kendall and Mrs. Johnson

LE CIRCLE FRANCAIS

Lo Circle Francais was organized in C. H. S. on December 7, 1923. for the advancement of French language and literature in C. H. S. The origin and development of the French drama and French customs are dealt with in the most interesting manner. There was formerly a French Club in C. H. S., but this is the first there has been Le Circle.

President	Lucille Martin
Vice President	Edris James
Secretary Treasurer	Wayne Jewell
Sponsor	Miss Deardorff

ORGANIZATIONS

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club was organized for the first time, this year under the sponsorship of Miss Wood and Miss Hearn.

The object of this club is to get the Commercial students together in a social way. It is also to inform them concerning students in various other places and the different kinds of Commercial work carried on by them.

The Club has enjoyed a large attendance, about forty members being enrolled. It is hoped that the enthusiasm will continue in the following years.

President	Edward McClintock
Vice President	William Binole
Secretary	Maggie Claretto
Treasurer	Lily May Lewis
Sponsors	Miss Wood and Miss Hearn

MATH CLUB

The Math. Club was first organized in Clinton High School in the fall of 1921 with Miss Hollis and Miss Morgan as sponsors. A constitution was adopted and the formal name Math. Club was given to the club. Its motto is B2 C2.

The purpose of the Math. Club is to study the origin and development of Mathematics.

The Club meets on the second Thursday in the month and reports are given on the lives and contributions of great mathematicians. In the social hour mathematical games are played.

This year the Math. Club was again organized on December 7 and the following officers elected:

President	Millard James
Vice President	Ruth Reeder
Secretary Treasurer	Freda Farrington
Sponsors	Miss Hollis and Miss Morgan

President	Albert Johnson
Vice President	Madeline Wright
Secretary	John Gellier
Treasurer	Warren Pierce
Sponsor	Miss Fordice

ORGANIZATIONS

LITERARY CLUB

The Literary Club was also organized for the first time, this year with Miss Muncie, Miss Baughman and Mrs. McWethy as sponsors.

It is primarily to give the members an insight into the literature of today as well as the literature of the past.

Various authors and their works are discussed, along with present day plays. Readings and discussion are given by different members.

Meetings are held every other Thursday with many members present.

President	Virginia Fillingier
Vice President	Loraine Walker
Secretary-Treasurer	Margaret Patch
Sponsors	Miss Muncie, Miss Baughman, Mrs. McWethy

ORGANIZATIONS

ORCHESTRA

An orchestra was again organized this year in C. H. S., under the direction of Mrs. Herr.

It has practised faithfully and proved the true talent of its members by giving a very pleasing program the night of the Athenian and Ionian debate.

The members of the orchestra are:

Violins: Beulah Griffin, Joseph Slater, Thomas Tindale, Ethel DeMasters, Martha Sciefers.

Cornet: Lawrence Brown, Victor Pollo.

Clarinet: Lino Pollo.

Saxophones: Hubert Williams, Frank Cullen.

Drums: Harold Wisehart.

Pianist: Louise Wright.

MISS SOMEBODY ELSE

MISS SOMEBODY ELSE.

"Miss Somebody Else," a delightful comedy farce in four acts, was given by the Senior and Sophomore classes of C. H. S. at the Capitol, January 16.

Its purpose was to raise money to provide football equipment. The box office re'turns were more than enough to make the two classes feel that their efforts had been justified.

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 4. Can you imagine a Circus in town on the first day of school? Freshmen and new teachers very much in evidence.

Sept. 5. Papa's dollars buy many books—to study or to wait for cooler weather is now the question, but programs still continue to change.

Sept. 6. Rules and Regulations posted on bulletin board. All standing room occupied by Freshmen.

Sept. 7. One week finished and we close our books with the thought: the school isn't so bad after all.

Sept. 10. The heroes go forth to battle. A goodly portion of the boys show their old-time pep by reporting for football. We're for 'em.

Sept. 11. Classes may come and classes may go but the Freshmen get the left-over seats forever. Seniors show budding importance.

Sept. 12. The struggle begins—first meeting of Old Gold and Black Staff

Sept. 13. The Senior Class adopts as its new motto: "Boys are to be both seen and heard." For further reference see list of Class officers.

Sept. 14. Why all the racket? Shorty and Duke have just been elected as yell leaders.

Sept. 17. What was it that Miss Fordice said to Virginia F. and Lorraine W. to-day about not being in the kindergarten? Are they really Seniors?

Sept. 18. Everyone out to back our team! We knew Gerstemyer wasn't in our class.

Sept. 19. Five dollars, please. What for? Why, athletic books, of course. Although Hos. expected the best looking team to win, he forgot that there was too much competition when the Juniors were awake. Too bad, Hos!

Sept. 21. Friday. Books at rest two whole days. Oh, boy!

Sept. 25. Juniors elected on Annual Staff—Freshmen jealous.

Sept. 26. Football boys appear somewhat the worse from practice. "If they won't work in school, I'll see that they do outside," says our Coach Bullock.

Sept. 29. Well, it could have been much worse, and we're proud to think we held Rose Freshmen 6-6. Hollis & Dearie made the afternoon interesting with the soothing strain "Hot Dogs."

OCTOBER

- Oct. 4. News! News! All for three cents. Yes, we like the press very much.
- Oct. 8. Jingle Jingle money on the assembly floor—but when Mrs. Johnson looks at us we resolve to drop no more.
- Oct. 10. Silence! Supreme Silence! Teacher's on the warpath.
- Oct. 12. "For thee we pine, oh general Assembly," but "Quoth the Raven Never More."
- Oct. 16. Just one more day until vacation. Aren't we sad—yes, we are.
- Oct. 17. Two whole days' vacation without a teacher in sight! Eureka!
- Oct. 22. We wonder how many A-1 recitations were made to-day.
- Oct. 23. Many lives in peril—floors oiled.
- Oct. 25. We see them here, there and everywhere making book reports. It is hoped that the epidemic doesn't spread.
- Oct. 26. Is it harmony or just noise? Just manufacturing "pep" for the Marshall game.
- Oct. 30. Plans for Hallowe'en make concentration on education impossible.

NOVEMBER

- Nov. 1. Plenty of pep and noise at evening meeting before Robinson game. Speeches by faculty, grads, and students. Yea, Clinton!
- Nov. 2. The finishing touches for the big game to-morrow are made. We're ready.
- Nov. 5. Appreciation assembly for the boys who played Saturday. Hon. Fred Blower acted very ably as master of ceremonies.
- Nov. 6. Are you so fond of your 6th period assembly, Mr. Reeder, that it must serve double time?
- Nov. 7. Junior class pins arrive. The class unanimously vote that they have the best looking jewelry in school.
- Nov. 8. Junior broke—ask Dearle. She knows why.
- Nov. 9. Found: A large yellow shoe on the clock! Mysterious signs in the assembly and class rooms.
- Nov. 12. Can we ever forget Armistice Day? The fine program in the assembly, our exhilarating stroll through the streets of Clinton. Our first nickels are spent on Junior shoes.
- Nov. 13. We recover from yesterday's celebration. "So the right of us and to the left of us" all we hear, Shoes! Shoes! Shoes!
- Nov. 15. Our dignified Senior girls blossom forth in hair ribbons—aren't they adorable!
- Nov. 16. $125 presented in Maggie's shoe at assembly in J. H. S. for the football fund. Juniors, we thank you!
- Nov. 19. Clinton defeated by Clinton. Are we downhearted? No!
- Nov. 20. Why the sudden concentration on books? Six weeks exams—Horror!
- Nov. 21. Education and visitors' week. Everyone ready for the worst.
- Nov. 23. A budding orator in our midst. Toivo boosts the old time spirit of C. H. S. for the Oakland game

Nov. 26. Everyone feeling fine. Why? Because our boys defeated the "Suckers."

Nov. 27. Grades out—Seniors in a turmoil.

Nov. 28. Thanksgiving program and school dismissed at two o'clock. Hurrah for Thanksgiving and the Brazil game.

DECEMBER

Dec. 3. Almost time for "Sandy Claws?"

Dec. 4. Are you out for basketball? The main topic now.

Dec. 5. Big pep session. Getting ready for the first game of the season.

Dec. 6. What were all those groans and sounds coming from R. O. M.'s Sociology class? What? He was discussing the composition of "files."

Dec. 7. What! Brazil beat us 37-22 in the first game of the season (at Brazil).

Dec. 10. We beat Chrisman Saturday night, 20-11. That's good.

Dec. 11. Freddy Reeder gets "hard bor'led." Naughty, naughty.

Dec. 12. Spring weather in December.

Dec. 13. "Nor" Silverman tells Mr. Minnick that there isn't any Santa Claws. How crue-l-l!

Dec. 14. Hooray! We beat Normal at Normal, 30-29. Johnny W. throws the winning basket in an overtime period.

Dec. 17. Last week of school this year.

Dec. 18. Today is Tuesday and nothing to do (?).

Dec. 19. Only three more days of school!

Dec. 20. Everybody ready for the Cayuga game.

Dec. 21. Tough luck.—C. H. S 14; Cayuga 20. Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

1924.

Jan. 1. We're all back and ready for work again. Was Santa Claus good to you?

Jan. 2. Mr. Minnick absent today. Wonder if he will get an excused absence. Teachers must be trying to make up for lost time from the length of the assignments.

Jan. 3. Hooray! We beat Normal for the second time this year, 30-13. Team goes to Cloverdale tomorrow for the Invitational Tourney.

Jan. 4. "Br-r-r-r," it sure is cold. They must have run out of coal.

Jan. 7. Freshman got lost and entered Mrs. Johnson's Latin Class uninvited. "Nuff sed."

Jan. 8. Pictures for the Annual taken. Didn't I look sweet, girls? I just know my rouge was on crooked.

Jan. 9. Where is the Girls' Basketball team? Got lost in the rush, maybe.

Jan. 10. Fontanet was no match for our boys and we won, 41-13. Miss Morgan invents a new plan for selling tickets. It will save us a jitney, maybe.

Jan. 11. Bob Hays says farewell to C. H. S. and joins the navy.

Jan. 14. Snow! Snow! Beautiful snow.

Jan. 15. Senior-Soph play (Miss Somebody Else). Everybody buys a ticket and is excused from afternoon classes.

- Jan. 16. Semester Exams!!! Have mercy on us poor brow-beaten "critters."
Jan. 17. More Semester Exams!!! Every moment they get harder.
Jan. 18. "Nobody flunked in C. H. S." Please correct this sentence. New semester started, and everybody is going to turn over a new leaf.
Jan. 21. Another Annual Staff meeting. "Dearie" bawled 'em out.
Jan. 22. More snow! Everybody got hit with a snowball. We ought to have a good baseball team this year.
Jan. 23. Miss Fordice oversees the decoration of the Coliseum for the regionals of the Wabash Valley Tourney.
Jan. 24. General Assembly. All ready for the tourney.
Jan. 25. Team beat Garfield and Marshall Saturday. Yea, Clinton!
Jan. 28. Basketball team practising hard for Wabash Valley Tourney.
Jan. 29. Tom Lowe donates picture of Lincoln's cabinet to History Class.
Jan. 30. Why don't somebody start something?
Jan. 31. Why did Bullock follow Jimmy W. home last night?

FEBRUARY.

- Feb. 1. Note from Freshman's Diary: "Only four more months till vacation, Skinny!"
- Feb. 4. "Girls, pl-lease don't comb your hair in my assembly." Miss Morgan's speech is rather the worse for the wear
- Feb. 5. Is Fred B. as interested (?) in school as he pretends to be?
- Feb. 6. Jed looks sort of pale. We wonder why?
- Feb. 7. Several hints are dropped concerning Latin Contest.
- Feb. 8. Shorty springs a party.
- Feb. 11. Miss Fordice gives her 8th period history class a lecture.
- Feb. 12. Birthday greetings, Mr. Lincoln.
- Feb. 13. Unlucky day for a certain Senior. See M. E. D. for particulars.
- Feb. 14. Warren gets his feelings hurt. Who could be so cr-r-u-el?
- Feb. 15. Freda forgets to go to class. Remember, you're a Senior now, Freda!
- Feb. 18. Blue Monday (per usual).
- Feb. 19. The music's fine at the Wabash, isn't it Punk?
- Feb. 20. What's this we hear? The Literary club must've had a hot time.
- Feb. 21. The members of the Public Speaking class are losing flesh. Stage fright doesn't agree with them.
- Feb. 22. We bow to Perrysville. We're good losers anyway.
- Feb. 25. Harold Hayworth says that Herman is the only one who can appreciate him.
- Feb. 26. According to Miss Morgan, Leon certainly "pulled a bone." Mustn't stop at girls' desks, Bum.
- Feb. 27. We wonder who Tommy White threatened to lick in the snowball fight.
- Feb. 28. And the rain came down.
- Feb. 29. Mildred L. (in Public Speaking class)—"She got on the mare and rode him away."

MARCH.

March 1. The merry month of March comes in like a lamb.

March 11. Fairly Monday for a change.

March 4. Yes, we have more snow. Where's your sled?

March 5. Seniors have another important meeting. Big argument over whether we wear caps and gowns or not.

March 6. Annual Staff is working hard, (so they say anyway).

March 7. Holy Gee! What's the matter with Freddy Reeder? Maybe he's got Heebie Jeebies.

March 10. We wonder what Oscar got so angry at in Reeder's 7th period History class. Maybe he got hit with a rubber.

March 11. Seniors giving orders for invitations. I'll take two dozen. We wonder who raided the Capitol?

March 12. Vague rumors of a general assembly floating around. Could it be possible?

March 13. This is our unlucky day. No, I didn't break my neck.

March 14. Friday again! Thank goodness!

March 17. March 18 is here all right. Br-r-r-r!

March 18. Stop. Look! Listen! Can it be possible? We almost had heart failure! 36 girls fainted! 50 boys collapsed! The rest of us on the verge of a nervous breakdown! Two (2) imagine it! Two general assemblies in one day! Hold your pocketbooks, girls.

March 19. Springtime again.

March 20. Winter again! Six inches of snow. "Shorty" wears his leather boots. He's a reg'lar "he man" of the far north.

March 21. Another week gone. Each day we get closer to the parting of the ways.

March 24. Big day for French teacher. Open for "congrat's."

March 25. Why all the excitement in the assembly? Maybe the Juniors are happy.

March 26. Everybody's got plenty of money today. After pay day.

March 27. Literary Club play "cootie" and "squirrel." My, thats' quite an educational society.

March 28. Senior meeting.

March 31. March goes out like a (?).

The local Reading and Oratorical Contest was held at C. H. S. March 18.

Those participating in the reading contest were: Darrel Freleigh, Mary Loulae Whitcomb, Grace Calvert and Virginia Phipps; and those taking part in the oratorical contest were: Warren Pierce, Margaret Patch, Harold Wisehart and Robert Pence.

Grace Calvert received first place in the reading contest and Mary Louise Whitcomb received second place.

In the oratorical contest Harold Wisheart was given first place and Warren Pierce second place.

The two receiving first place earned the right to compete at the County Contest held at Cayuga, Friday March 28.

Madellne Pollo was sent to give a Musical number for the program.

The Class of 1924 has chosen for its Class Play, "Three Live Ghosts," an entertaining comedy in three acts. This play has been very successful in many large cities.

APRIL.

- April 3. Seniors begin to wish they were Freshmen again.
- April 2. April showers bring—the curl out of Lemmie's hair.
- April 5. Cast for Senior play working hard. Yea! Seniors. Let's have a K. O.
- April 6. Six weeks exams leave us weak and gasping. We're not so sorry we're Seniors after all.
- April 7. Why the smiles, Louise?
- April 10. Everybody is so sleepy in 12-A English that Mrs. McW. sings a lullaby.
- April 11. We wonder why Millard got so tickled in Math. Club?
- April 12. Our favorite quotation, "I wish I wuz a little rock," etc.
- April 13. Cynthia goes flower-hunting.
- April 14. Norman S. "Hark! Hark! a Lark!"
- April 17. Invitations arrive!
- April 18. H. Harrison gets peeved. His pet question: "Gotcher money?"
- April 19. Spring "has come" at last, but not for the last time. Hurrah!
- April 20. Miss Fordice wonders when the Seniors get so dignified that they can stay out of school whenever they please.
- April 21. Freddy Reeder says he is going to be a little harder on his classes.
- April 24. Freddy again tells his classes, but we don't care for this is Monday.
- April 25. General assembly expected to be soon.
- April 26. We wonder if Harold W. is a Senior (or thinks he is) with his dignified air?
- April 27. Dearie sure has the Seniors hurrying to sell Annuals.
- April 28. The last day of the month, week, etc.

MAY.

- May 1. Who's Queen of the May? Bet we know who Leon's Queen of the May is.
- May 2. Friday! Day of joy for all inmates of the padded cell.
- May 5. Usual wrangle at Ionian and Athenian Debating Societies.
- May 6. "Three Live Ghosts" don't look so lively these days.
- May 7. Shy (in Clintonian office): "Give me this crock full of apple butter."
- May 8. Several students evince interest in the books at the reference table. Cool breezes blow over that part of the assembly.
- May 9. Harold Hayworth finds that some one is going to graduate with forty credits! Cheer-up, Harold, you have the edge on them by one credit.
- May 12. Fred Reeder has delirium tremens. Everyone in the seventh period class recites.
- May 13. Juniors make great preparations for the banquet.
- May 14. "Three Live Ghosts" were almost changed to "Three Dead Ghosts" when the bench back of the stage refused to withstand the strain.
- May 15. Some Seniors begin to look glum.
- May 16. Class day. Junior-Senior Banquet. The Juniors were visibly surprised.
- May 19. No more Seniors! Underclassmen rejoice.
- May 20. Underclassmen review for Semester exams. Seniors rejoice.
- May 21. Commencement. The game is won, and life's begun.
- May 22. Fervent prayers are offered to the Goddess of Chance.
- May 23. Perpetual expression—"Won't you please sign my Annual?" Good-bye forever, old Senior gang.

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

JUNIOR TAG DAY.

Shoes! Shoes! Shoes! Everybody had to buy a shoe. On November 13 and 14 the Juniors were shoe salesmen. Every Junior had a handful of cardboard shoes to sell and consequently it cost us poor on-lookers.

The purpose of this drive was to raise money to buy football equipment and it was a "howling success." Over $125.00 was raised and the football team next year should be well supplied with good shoes.

ATHENIAN-IONIAN DEBATES.

The first debate between the Athenian and Ionian Debating Societies was held before a general assembly December 7.

The question debated was: Resolved that the Closed Shop would benefit the Miss Muncie.

American Public as a whole." The Ionians took the affirmative side and the Athenians the negative. Those representing the Athenians were: Fred Blower, Madeline Wright and Warren Pierce. The Ionians were represented by Margaret Davis, Virginia Fillingier and Laura Bosonetto.

The laurels were awarded to the Ionians by a two to one vote.

Eager for another victory the Ionians challenged the Athenians to a debate on the question: Resolved that semester examinations should be abolished in Clinton High School. This time the Athenians took the affirmative and the Ionians the negative.

The debate was held on the evening of February 19, in the C. H. S. assembly and again the Athenians tasted bitter defeat at the hands of the Ionians by a two to one vote. This time the Athenians were represented by Harold Hayworth, Albert Johnson and Margaret Patch, and the Ionians by Margaret Davis, Naomi Annakin and Louis Divan.

The Athenians proved themselves game losers and it is quite probable that before the end of the year the Athenians will have a break in their luck and avenge their defeats by victories over the Ionians.

A very clever and amusing annual pep session was given before a general assembly at C. H. S.

It was in the form of a mock Annual Staff meeting, all members participating.

The assembly was decorated with old gold and black crepe paper and appropriate posters.

After the Mock Staff Meeting the Staff members were introduced and short speeches were made by the Senior members of the Staff.

A few days later the same program was given at J. H. S. and was received with the same enthusiasm as at C. H. S.

DISTRICT TOURNEY.

Just before the district tourney, C. H. S. attracted the attention of the rest of the schools in this district, by a victory over the strong Brazil five. This victory caused most dopesters to place C. H. S. on about even terms with Wiley, the chief contender for the district title.

The Old Gold and Black showed rather poor form in winning her first game from Gerstmeyer by a close score. But in the game against Wiley, C. H. S. played one of her best games of the season and only the superior passing and shooting of Wiley on the large floor was all that stopped the Old Gold and Black from winning the tourney. C. H. S. offered Wiley the most opposition they received in either the district or regional tourneys.

Faulds was placed at center on the second all district team. While Lahti and Wallace received honorable mention.

WABASH VALLEY TOURNEY.

C. H. S. got off to a good start in Wabash Valley tournament by winning from both Marshall and Garfield by large scores in the preliminary of the Valley tourney held at the Coliseum.

These victories earned them the right to meet Linton in the first round of the finals of the tourney which was held in the Wiley Gym, at Terre Haute.

The Old Gold and Black showed good form in the game against Linton, but tough luck on shots on the part of C. H. S. allowed Linton to run up the score and later win the Valley Championship in the final game against Wiley. Faulds and Wallace were given honorable mention on the all Valley teams.

CURRENT EVENTS BEE AND MUSICAL CONTEST.

For several years, Clinton High School has been a regular participant in the Current Events Bee and Musical Contest. These are held in Terre Haute under the auspices of Indiana University. At the time that the Annual was sent to press, several students were working hard in order to be eligible to enter the Current Events Bee. From the sounds which we have heard issuing from the assembly nearly every evening, we are sure there are several people tying out for the Musical Contest also. May Clinton be even more successful in bringing home the bacon this year than she has been in previous years.

The Wabash Valley Current Events Bee and Musical Contest was held at Sullivan, April 11th.

The representatives from C. H. S. were: Harold Hayworth, Mary Bakas, Irene Ward and Nettie Lalrd.

Harold Hayworth won first place in the Current Events Bee. This is the first time that Clinton has ever won first place in that event.

Irene Ward, who represented C. H. S. in the piano contest, tied with the Robinson representative for second place.

C. H. S. may be justly proud of her representatives in events like these as well as in athletic contests.

COMMERCIAL CLUB SKATING PARTY.

The Commercial Club gave a very successful skating party at Happyland, February 9. It was given for the purpose of raising money to send delegates to the Typewriting and Shorthand Contest. This contest was held at Brazil, April 26, and was the first one in which Clinton High School had ever participated.

The local Latin contest was held at C. H. S. February 23. From those who took part, thirteen were chosen to compete in the county contest which is to be held at Clinton March 22.

From those who enter the County Contest, two will be sent to the District Contest at Terre Haute, April 5.

The State Contest will be held at Bloomington, April 25. One representative from each district will be sent to this.

It is hoped that a representative from C. H. S., or at least one from this county, may reach the State Contest.

It is doubtful whether representatives from C. H. S. will be sent to the Indiana-Kentucky Latin Contest on account of the State Contest.

COUNTY ORATORICAL AND READING CONTEST.

Harold Wisheart, who represented Clinton High School in the County Oratorical Contest, at Cayuga, did splendidly, but failed to place.

Grace Calvert won first place in the Reading Contest. Her talent was displayed to great advantage by her reading "At the Matinee." Grace is a Sophomore and will have many more opportunities to make C. H. S. proud of her.

Bessie D.—What made that bump on your head?

Whaneta—That's where a thought struck me.

"Good-bye, Mr. Reeder," said Louis Dlvn on graduating, "I shall always feel indebted to you for all I know."

"Say no more," replied Mr. Reeder. "Say no more. Such a trifle is not worthy of thought, I assure you."

Bob Bence (in Public Speaking)—Mrs. McWethy, I can't talk like a woman. I can only talk like a human being.

Tom Blower—I've paid back all my debts.

Shy Wiley—Where'd you get the money?

Tommy—Borrowed it.

Mr. Davis was getting poor attention to his lecture on the hippopotamus. "You should pay better attention," he remonstrated. "You can never get a true idea of such a ludicrous creature if you do not keep your eyes on me."

Jack Whyte—Well, I guess I know a few things.

Lourn Zieggra—Well, I guess I know about as few things as anybody myself.

Eight rules to success or how to become a Senior:

I.—Study well—thy teachers.

II.—If thy neighbor write a better theme than thou let him write it—for thee.

III.—Honor thy faculty for though they be fossils they hand forth the grad:s.

IV.—Remember the days of thy examinations and choose thy seat mates accordingly.

V.—Thou shalt not bluff in class over much, lest thy professor find thee out.

VI.—Thou shalt keep thy midnight oil pure and undefiled, yet powerful even as home brew.

VII.—Thou shalt remember to laugh even at the joke of thy teachers, though they have long since grown beards and voted and raised children.

VIII.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's grades, but go thou and copy some learned friend's paper.

IX.—Listen intently to the words of wisdom falling as pearls from the mouth of the teacher, sleeping no more than nature demandeth.

X.—And above all: Never let thy studies interfere with thy education.

Miss Deardorff—What is the past participle of "dire"?

Margaret D. (absent-mindedly)—Dearest.

Dub R.—Do you stutter all the time?

"Nor." S.—N-no; only w-w-when I t-t-talk.

Virginia F.—I think I'll drop this public-speaking course. I've got all the fundamentals.

Mrs. McW.—Yes, you've got all fun, but not all damentals.

Miss Wood—What three things shine?

Cynthia B.—The sun, moon and my hair.

H. Hayworth—As I was sitting in my thought, a set struck me.

Photographer—Say, do you want a small picture or a large one?

Clifford Cullen—I want a small one.

Photographer—Then please close your mouth.

Punk (while spending the night with a friend)—Why are you saying your prayers? I never do.

Dilles—You'd better. This is a folding bed.

"Dearie"—Do you understand French?

H. Harrison—Yes, if it's spoken in English.

Lino (to artist)—What would you take to my picture?

Artist—A bucket of mud and a broom.

Louise Nichols—Oh, my lips are so sore this morning.

Florence S.—I think it's from the sun.

Louise—Whose son?

Miss Morgan (to boy with his feet in the aisle and chewing gum)—"Here, boy, take that gum out of your mouth and put your feet in."

Mr. Minnick—Harold, why are you late?

Harold Walden—I started late.

Mr. M.—Why didn't you start early?

Harold W.—It was too late to start early.

Mrs. Johnson—Did anyone help you with these sentences?

Harold Hayworth—No, my sister did them by herself.

Miss Dillon—Faces this way.

Madeline Wright—I can't make mine that way.

JUNIOR HI JOKES.

Nettle—Do you think you can ever make use of my voice?

Muscle Teacher—Yes, in case of fire.

Mr. White—Did that young man smoke in the parlor last night? I found burnt matches there.

Catherine—Oh, no, papa! He just lit one or two to see what time it was.

Hazel W.—Yes, father has always given me a book for my birthday.

Joe R.—My, what a wonderful library you must have.

Lucile R.—Would you marry a man to reform him?

Lucile R.—I guess I'll have to. There isn't any one that suits me the way he is.

A lady got on a crowded car when a man arose:

Lady—Just keep your seat, sir, I insist.

The Man—Insist all you like, lady, I get off here.

Kind Old Lady—It must be awfully tiresome going from place to place looking for work.

Tramp—So I've heard, lady.

Don W.—Why does a buffalo stand on a nickel?

Bob S.—Cause it hasn't got room to sit down.

Anna Mildred—Do you ever get tired of walking to school?

Georgia C.—Yes.

Anna Mildred—Why don't you run awhile?

He—Why in the world are we having fish every day?

She—I've read such a lovely recipe for removing a fish bone when it gets stuck in your throat, and I want to try it.

Herman W. (in Public Speaking)—The actress contributed a wolf, given to her by an admirer whom she had tried to keep for a pet and whom she had fed raw meat.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

The page features a light peach background with a faint, repeating floral pattern. A wide, ornate border in a darker shade of peach frames the entire page. In the center, a white rectangular box with a decorative, slightly irregular border contains the text. The text is in a serif font, with some words in all caps and others in title case, separated by decorative flourishes.
